

VISIT TO EAST YORKSHIRE 11 AUGUST 2018 Two Monarchs and a Bunker

The Society's visit this year is to East Yorkshire, on Saturday 11 August 2018. The timetable is (approximately) as follows:

8.30am Depart Ripon

10.45am

St Augustine's Church, Hedon – we shall be shown round the church. One description says: 'Its rugged 15th century Perpendicular central tower gives it the name 'The King of Holderness'. The chancel and transepts are Early English and the nave Early Decorated, as is the notable octagonal font.'

12.00 noon

Depart Hedon

12.30pm

Arrive Patrington. We will be served a sandwich, side salad and cake lunch in the Church Hall (with tea/coffee) and then visit St Patrick's Church – 'The Queen of Holderness' – again we shall have a guide to the church, described as 'a real gem of a church, one of the most enjoyable parish churches in England . . . an interior so full of light and space, with such a unity of design and quality of architecture; an almost perfect example of Decorated Gothic.'

Gothic.'

2.15pm

Depart Patrington

2.30pm

RAF Holmpton Cold War Nuclear Bunker – 100 feet below ground, a vast complex of command and accommodation rooms, including a hospital; if you visited the York Bunker a few years ago, this is very much more impressive. We shall have a guide tour here, too. See www.visitthebunker.com

4.30pm

Depart RAF Holmpton

6.30pm

Arrive Ripon

The cost for the day (including coach, lunch at Patrington, a donation to both churches, entry to the Bunker and a tip for the coach driver) is £35.00 per person. Please complete and return the form by 20 July 2018 at the latest.
